

European Association

Erasmus Coordinators

ERASMUS+ PROGRAMME TRAINING SEMINAR

Pre-conference event, organised by EAPRIL in cooperation with EAEC

November 11, 2018
Grand Bernardin Hotel
Portoroz, Slovenia

CONTENT OF THE COURSE

- Introduction to ERASMUS+ Programme
- Objectives / Priorities
- Structure of a proposal
- Networking and partner search
- Eligible activities
- Tools for background preparation
- Work distribution to partners
- Outputs and work plan
- Staff cost estimation and Operational Expenses
- Budget
- Quality Assurance and Contingency Plan
- Review of approved proposals, KA1, KA2
- Management of the project after approval
- Practical work, if time allows

Participants will receive electronic files with material relating to the content of the course and follow-up support for networking and questions.

More information on the trainer can be found on the 2nd page

PROGRAMME – TIMELINE

- 10h – 12h – Module 1
- 12h – 12h45 – Lunch
- 12h45 – 14h45: Module 2
- 14h45 – 15h15: Coffee Break
- 15h15 – 17h15: Module 3

FEE & REGISTRATION

- 80 EURO for the 1-day seminar, including lunch and coffee breaks, and course material
- Register via the regular EAPRIL2018 Registration system – a ticket for this course can be added when ordering your conference ticket (www.earli-eapril.org)

Please be informed that this seminar will only take place if a minimum of 6 participants has registered. We will inform all registered participants by Mid September.

MORE INFORMATION? INFO@EAPRIL.ORG

TRAINER: Prof. Dr. Gregoris A. Makrides

Professor Dr. Gregoris A. Makrides, holds a Ph.D. in Applied Mathematics from the IIT in Chicago, USA. He taught mathematics in HEI for 20 years, he served as teacher trainer for 5 years at the Cyprus Pedagogical Institute, was the Dean of Enrolment Management at the University of Nicosia for 6 years, Director of Research and International Relations at the University of Cyprus for 11 years and deputy director of Studies and Student Affairs in the same for 3 years and the Executive Director of the European Office of Cyprus for 11 years. He is currently a visiting professor as expert consultant for EU funding in several universities in the South-Eastern Europe in the countries of Cyprus, Greece, Bulgaria, Romania and Fyrom. He is the CEO of PROGNOSIS since 2017 and he is currently the president of the following Associations: Cyprus Mathematical Society(CMS), European Association of ERASMUS Coordinators(EAEC), European Association of Career Guidance(EACG), Mathematical Society of South-Eastern Europe(MASSE), THALES Foundation of Cyprus. He is the founder of ERASMUS Congress and Exhibition(ERACON) and the founder of EUROMATH & EUROSCIENCE pupils conferences. He has more than 100 publications in refereed journals, conference proceedings and in public press. He was a project coordinator for 12 European projects since 2002 and has been a partner in more than 30. He offered more than 100 European training courses since 2005, he organized more than 50 conferences since 1997 and more than 100 National and Multinational competitions/examinations since 1995 with more than 140.000 pupils examined. He has several international recognitions including awards for "Outstanding achievements in development of the EU through European Projects", "Best Research and Practice Project", and more.